GREYWOLF'S INVESTMENT PHILOSOPHY

Opportunistic and Risk-Aware

Greywolf avoids crowded trades, instead focusing on differentiated opportunities supported by rigorous, independent analysis.

Nimble and Disciplined

Unlike larger funds constrained by scale, Greywolf capitalizes on small and mid-sized opportunities that others miss.

Greywolf Invests Across Credit Opportunities, with a Focus on Small-to Mid-Size Deals

Why Opportunistic Credit Now?

With ongoing economic volatility and tighter credit markets, opportunistic credit seeks to offer a powerful mix of yield, flexibility, and downside risk management.

STRATEGIC BENEFITS:

Consistent Income

Offers regular interest payments, appealing to investors seeking predictable cash flow.

Yield Potential

Capture the illiquidity and complexity premium across niche credit segments.

Downside Risk Management

Focus on secured, senior, or structurally protected investments.

Lower Correlation

Diversify beyond traditional bonds and equities.

Floating Rate Exposure

Help protect purchasing power in rising rate environments.

Resilience in Volatile Markets

Rigorous credit analysis, proactive covenant evaluation, and thoughtful capital structure positioning help provide resilience during periods of market volatility.

Special situations and dislocations are often under-followed and under-owned, creating attractive entry points for patient, research-driven capital.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY:

Unlocking Undervalued Credit

The Fund leverages Greywolf Capital's proven expertise to capitalize on market dislocations and under-followed credit opportunities that traditional vehicles often overlook including:

01

Corporate Credit

Performing, stressed, and distressed debt, including special situations and restructurings.

02

Structured Credit

CLO mezzanine and equity tranches with strong yield potential and embedded protections.

03

Hard Assets

Income-producing shipping assets with long-term contracts and inflation sensitivity.

The Fund actively rotates across sectors based on relative value, seeking to capture upside in dislocated markets while emphasizing risk mitigation.

Why Invest in Axxes Opportunistic Credit Fund?

For investors and advisors navigating today's evolving credit landscape, the Fund provides exposure to institutional credit strategies in a format that emphasizes access, transparency, and structural efficiency.

01

Distinct Credit Focus

Prioritizes dislocated and undervalued opportunities beyond traditional direct lending across corporate, structured, and hard asset credit.

02

Flexible, Market-Driven Strategy

Actively allocates across credit sectors, adapting to shifting market conditions to pursue the most compelling risk-adjusted returns.

03

Competitive Return Potential

Targets mispriced assets and complexity premiums often overlooked by larger funds designed to outperform traditional fixed income.

04

Trusted Expertise from Greywolf Capital

Managed by a seasoned credit team with a 21+ year track record across distressed, structured, and event-driven strategies.

05

Resilience Through Market Cycles

Opportunistic credit strategies which include blending distressed debt, direct lending, specialty finance or other niche strategies have historically shown lower correlation to traditional markets, and may help manage volatility and preserve capital.¹

06

Accessible, Investor-Friendly Structure

Combines institutional access with interval fund features investors value including quarterly liquidity², low minimums, 1099 tax reporting and no capital calls.

The Fund's prospectus provides a more complete discussion of the risks summarized here.

The Fund is suitable only for investors who can bear the risks associated with the limited liquidity of the Fund and should be viewed as a long-term investment.

The Fund primarily invests in Credit Instruments which include: fixed or floating rate bonds or loans which are issued by U.S. or non-U.S. entities and are senior or subordinated, secured or unsecured, and rated or unrated; stressed and distressed credit instruments; convertible securities either issued in connection with the workout or restructuring of an existing credit investment or which the Sub-Adviser believes will provide an attractive income-based return; structured credit instruments including securities issued in transactions such as CLOs, CMBS and ABS and other structured credit transactions; and hard asset credit-related instruments. Various Credit Instruments can be illiquid.

The Fund may pay distributions, if any, in significant part from sources that may not be available in the future and that are unrelated to the Fund's performance, such as from offering proceeds, borrowings, and amounts from the Fund's affiliates that are subject to repayment by investors, which may constitute a return of capital. Return of capital distributions may have adverse consequences for Shareholders. To the extent that any portion of the Fund's distributions is considered a return of capital, the amount treated as a tax-free return of capital will reduce a shareholder's adjusted tax basis in its Shares, thereby increasing the shareholder's potential taxable gain or reducing the potential taxable loss on the sale of the Shares.

Liquidity for the Fund's Shares will be provided only through quarterly repurchase offers for no less than 5% of the Fund's Shares at NAV, and there is no guarantee that an investor will be able to sell all the Shares that the investor desires to sell in the repurchase offer. Due to these restrictions, an investor should consider an investment in the Fund to be of limited liquidity.

The amount of distributions that the Fund may pay, if any, is uncertain.

The Fund has no history of operations and it is not intended that the Shares will be listed on a public exchange at this time. No secondary market is expected to develop for the Fund's Shares.

An investor will pay a sales load of up to 5.75% for Class A Shares and offering expenses of up to 1.00% on the amounts it invests. If you pay the maximum aggregate 5.75% sales load on Class A Shares and offering expenses, you must experience a total return on your net investment of 6.75% for Class A Shares in order to recover these expenses.

The Fund will have to pay interest and dividends on its borrowings, which may reduce the Fund's current income. An investment manager's investments, depending upon strategy, may be in companies whose capital structures are highly leveraged. Such investments involve a high degree of risk in those adverse fluctuations in the cash flow of such companies, or increased interest rates, may impair their ability to meet their obligations, which may accelerate and magnify declines in the value of any such portfolio company investments in a down market.

Fund shareholders will bear two layers of fees and expenses: asset-based fees and expenses at the Fund level, and asset-based fees, carried interests, incentive allocations or fees.

To the extent that the Fund does not receive timely valuation information, the Fund's ability to accurately calculate its NAV may be impaired. The Adviser generally provides valuations on a quarterly basis, whereas the Fund determines the NAV of each share class daily. A large portion of the Fund's investments will not be publicly traded and will not have readily available market quotations. As such, those investments will be valued at fair value as determined in good faith pursuant to Rule 2a-5 under the 1940 Act. Fair valuations may prove to be inaccurate. Neither the Adviser, Sub-Adviser nor the Board will be able to confirm independently the accuracy of valuation information. An investment valuation information could also be inaccurate due to fraudulent activity, mis-valuation or inadvertent error. The Fund may not uncover errors in valuation for a significant period of time, if ever.

The Fund's investments may be in operating companies whose capital structures are highly leveraged, such that the debt of these companies may be considered high yield debt (or "junk bonds"). Additionally, these companies may be subject to reorganization, restructuring or bankruptcy proceedings. Such investments involve a high degree of risk in that adverse fluctuations in the cash flow of such operating companies, or increased interest rates, may impair the ability to meet their obligations, which may accelerate and magnify declines in the value of any such investments in a down market.

The securities in which the Fund may invest may be among the most junior in an operating company's capital structure and, thus, subject to the greatest risk of loss. There may be instances where there may be no collateral to protect such investments.
